

NOTES FROM CAMDEN.

* The Sons of Israel, a Jewish organization of South Camden, have appointed a committee to select a Jewish cemetery.

* Mrs. Ellis Lawrence slipped on the ice in front of the Broadway M. E. Church on Sunday night and was removed to her home seriously injured.

* The new High School recently attached to the Camden Manual Training School opened yesterday. Forty-eight pupils were present at the opening.

* During a quarrel at Gloucester on Sunday night Richard Ford, colored, stabbed Peter Rogers in the abdomen. The wound is not serious. Ford was locked up.

* Gilbert Bulsen, aged 85, one of Camden's oldest citizens, who died as the result of a fall on Friday last, was buried from his late home, 412 Benson street, yesterday.