

CAMDEN HEBREWS DESIRE BUILDING

Y. M. H. A. Will Launch Campaign for Funds at Mass Meeting Tomorrow

Under the auspices of the Young Men's Hebrew Association, of Camden, N. J., a vigorous campaign to raise a fund for the erection of a Hebrew communal building will be launched in that city tomorrow afternoon at a meeting in the Broadway Theatre at 3 P. M.

This meeting will be free to the public and will be addressed by well-known men of Philadelphia and Camden, many of whom are closely identified with movements in general concerning the welfare of Hebrew people throughout the country.

Among the speakers will be Dr. Cyrus Adler, president of Dropsie College; Isaac Hassler, president of the Young Men's Hebrew Association of Philadelphia; Mayor Ellis, of Camden; and Sigmund Schoenagle.

The committee in charge of the campaign is composed of Joseph Kanter, Max Goldich, Bertrand Schneeberg, William M. Lashman, Benjamin Natal, Mark Obus, Jacob Furer and Arnold Weiss.
