

CAMDEN POLITICAL JOTS

The Helrew Republican Club held a ratification meeting at Fifth and Chestnut streets last night.

The Republican City Executive Committee met yesterday afternoon and completed arrangements for the election.

The Seventh ward Republicans held a public meeting last night in the A. M. E. Church, at Eighth and Steamore streets.

The Committee of One Hundred held mass meetings last night at Maennerchor Hall, in the Ninth ward; Kayser's Hall, in the First ward, and Newton Hall, in the Sixth ward.

The County Board of Elections yesterday appointed the following persons to fill vacancies on precinct election boards: Wm. Anderson, First precinct, Seventh ward; Anthony Bechtel, Fourth precinct, Ninth ward; Benjamin Pratt, Second precinct, Gloucester township.

About 200 persons attended a mass meeting, under the auspices of the Thompson Democrats, in the Court House last night. David M. Chambers presided and Lawyer Clarence T. Atkinson was the principal speaker. State Senator William D. Day, of Hudson county, was billed to be present, but illness, it was stated, kept him away.