

OVER IN CAMDEN.

* The petit jurors for the May term of court were drawn yesterday by Sheriff Earrell.

* The Camden Gaslight Company proposes to reduce the price of gas from $1.50 to $1.24 per thousand feet after June 1.

* The Hebrew Independent Political Club has endorsed Isaac H. Weaver for Council, and Harry Wolfe, for Freeholder, in the Fifth ward.

* Charged with breaking and entering the house of Charles Sharp, at 507 Branch street, George H. Bishop was committed yesterday in default of bail.

* Two valuable horses stolen from West Chester have been recovered in Camden through the efforts of Police Lieutenant Foster and Policeman Harvey.
