FOUR NEW PASTORS In Camden Pulpits

Rev. E. J. Kulp Greeted at Broadway and Others at Methodist Churches in Different Sections

the Broadway M. E. Church, Camden, yesterday.

Four new pastors were greeted by the congregations of as many Methodist congregations of as many Methodis Episcopal Churches in Camden yesterday. The property of the Churches in Camden yesterday. The Churches in the Churches in Camden yesterday. The Churches in the Churches and the Churches when the Churches when the Churches and the Churches when the Churches and the Churches when the Churches and the Churches and

Rev. E. J. Kulp appeared for the first time in the pulpit. He made a very favorable impression. He succeeds Rev. George H. Neal, who went to Trenton. At the Eighth Street M. E. Church, Rev. D. E. Clair spoke, the old pastor going to Asbury Park. Rev. S. Monroc Vansant occupied the pulpit in the State Street M. E. Church, in place of Rev. F. Street M. E. Church, in place of Rev. F. Branch, while Rev. George Arbeit preached at the Trinity M. E. Church he succeeding Rev. C. S. Miller, who was assigned to South Amboy.

he succeeding Rev. C. S. Miller, who was assigned to South Amboy. In all of the other churches the old pastors were received by their respective congregations. Throughout the coming week there will be formal reception tendered the new and old pastors and their families.