

CAMDEN NOTES

 The grand jury yesterday made its third presentment of thirty-one true bills.

 The senior members of the Central Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium will give a banquet to-night.

 A spark from a locomotive caused a fire at the home of Edward Cox, Nineteenth and Kulson streets, last night that did $200 damages.

 Fireman John W. Vanhart was buried from his late home, 328 North Tenth street, Camden, yesterday. A battalion of firemen from the various engine houses attended the obsequies.

 Walter Scott Miller, the negro lawyer of New Haven, Conn.; convicted of forgery, was yesterday sentenced to two years in State Prison by Judge Jellie in Camden. Miller is highly educated, being a graduate of Yale University.