

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

 Accused of not only beating his wife, but also with breaking up their furniture, Walter Joslin, of 205 Byron street, was committed to the county jail in default of bail by Justice Schmitz yesterday.

 With Mayor Ellis as one of the principal speakers, the new playground on Kaighn avenue, below Seventh street, will be formally opened today. A pleasing program will be given under the direction of the Playground Commissioners.

 The Camden Ice Company was incorporated yesterday with a capital of $75,000, the incorporators being Calvin L. Sigle, George W. Burris and Laura M. Sigle, all of Camden.

 Slipping between two freight cars at the Sitley grain elevator, Frank Batey, a brakeman, 32 years old, of 1012 South Second street, narrowly escaped death yesterday. At the Cooper Hospital it was found he had a sprained back.