CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

Accused of not only beating his wife, but also with breaking up their furniture. Waiter Joslin, of 205 Byron street, was committed to the county juil in default of bail by Justice Schmitz yesterday.  With Mayor Ellis as one of the principal speakers, the new playeround on Kaighn av uppeakers, the new playeround on Kaighn av uppeakers to be seventh street, will be formal popened today. A pleasing program will is given under the direction of the Playgron Commissioners.

resterily with a capital of $1,000, the incorporators being Calvin I, Sigle, George W Burris and Laura M. Sigle, all of Camden.

Silping between two treight cars at the Silicy grain elevator, Frank Batey, a brake man, $2 years old, of 1012 South Second street narrowly excapsed death yesterday. At the Context Heartiful it was found be had a special