

Little Chums Her Pall Bearers

Attired entirely in white, six little companions of Katherine Wagner, 5 years old, of 1218 Knight street, Camden, who was burned to death Saturday as the result of being struck by lightning, acted as her pall bearers at the funeral yesterday. Services were held in the Church of the Sacred Heart, where Rev. Maurice E. Bric, the pastor, celebrated solemn requiem high mass. Interment was made in the Calvary Cemetery.
