

HERE AND THERE IN CAMDEN

Charged with breaking a bottle over the head of Rosetta Johnson because she became too friendly with the defendant's "gentleman friend," Viola Wolff was committed to jail by Justice Schultz. Rosetta was treated at Cooper Hospital.

The funeral of John F. Stanton, a Pennsylvania Railroad engineer, took place yesterday at his home at 707 New street mass being celebrated at the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

Exhibencing their patriotism, German-Americans in South Camden yesterday had a flag raising at Fourth and Viola streets. An address was made by William Langloette.

At a patriotic meeting to be held at the Catholic Iceum tonight an address will be made by Rev Edward Duff, chaplain of the Battleship Newark. Mayor Ellis will preside.