

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

---

** County Clerk Patterson yesterday received the paraphernalia for the coming fall election. It came in several wagon loads of boxes.

** Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Tillie L. Mathis, daughter of Mrs. Lulu Mathis, of 440 Broadway, to George Ep-ley, a popular young man of Pensauken.

** A commotion was created in Squire Thompson's court yesterday when Mrs. Rose Diboski, of 1829 Salem street, had an attack of heart disease after a complaint charging her with disorderly conduct had been read. She was taken to her home.

** The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth May John-tray, 30 years old, took place yesterday from her home at 732 Haddon avenue. Interment was made in the Harleigh Cemetery.

** About a month ago Charles Rudolph, of Van Buren street, missed a fine Pekin duck. Yesterday it returned with a brood of a dozen young turkey*. Rudolph is wondering where the brood came from.

** According to the report of the Homeo-pathic Hospital there was 60 admissions during the past month, while 874 persons were treated in the dispensary department.

---