

• CAMDEN AT A GLANCE

Accused by his wife of assault and battery, John Palfrey, of 410 West street, was held under $300 bail by Recorder Stackhouse yesterday.

Ill for four years with an internal ailment, Mrs. Margaret Stanton, wife of John Stanton, a Pennsylvania Railroad engineer, died yesterday at her home, 70 1/2 New street. She is survived by four children. Her funeral takes place Tuesday morning.

Sustaining contusions of the side and face in a fall from his wagon, Alfred Trusty, aged 27 years, of 1722 Van Buren street, was treated at Cooper Hospital.

Falling near her home, Arabella Farnham, aged 12 years, of 1005 Mt. Ephraim avenue, was painfully injured when a large knitting needle she was carrying slipped, a big snap in her right leg. She was taken to Cooper Hospital.

Judge Boyle yesterday granted inn and tavern licenses to Helene Barthman, of Centre Township, Antonio Munca and Mary Kohler, of Waterford Township, and Ernest P. Steubing, of Voorhees Township.

Charged by Policeman Hambo with making sales at his delinquent store on Sunday, David Levison, of 544 Kaishu avenue, was fined $10 yesterday by Recorder Stackhouse.