

The rift runs so deep it could have a bearing not only on the

Policeman Shoots Cop In Accident

CAMDEN —AP— Sergeant Carmen Fuscellaro, 34, was accidentally shot and killed by a fellow policeman yesterday as they searched City Hall for an escaped prisoner.

Fuscellaro, in charge of a dog detail, was not in uniform. He was wearing trousers similar in type to that worn by jail inmates.

Patrolman Dennis Evans shot Fuscellaro in the chest as the sergeant moved out of a darkened corner of a fourth-floor corridor. He was dead on arrival at Cooper Hospital.

Minutes after the shooting the search for Donald Murphy, 29, of Philadelphia, was called off in the 18-story building.

A taxicab driver, Robert Helms, identified a picture of Murphy as the man he drove to Philadelphia shortly after the morning escape.

Murphy, a trustee at the jail awaiting trial on a charge of stealing an auto, pulled a gun on Harry Murray, 42, supervisor of guards.

He fired one shot at Murray when the guard refused to unlock a door. Police said they didn't know where Murphy obtained the weapon. He was still at large at a late hour last night.