

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

 Bishop J. A. McFall will confirm a large class at the Church of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel next Sunday.

 Word was received yesterday of the sudden death, in New York, of Edward Moran, of Princeton avenue and Pine streets, from heart disease.

 Register of Deeds Edward Delacroix yesterday moved his office staff into his quarters at the new Court House.

 Rev. John Deming was yesterday presented with a handsome traveling bag by his fellow-grand jurymen. Rev. Mr. Deming, the pastor of the Haddon Heights Baptist Church, was recently married. With his bride he will shortly leave for Japan for missionary work.

 Piercing screams emanating from Sycamore street near Sixth attracted the attention of Policemen Appley and Hill yesterday. On investigating they found a woman on a step and a hornless alderney cow attacking her. The woman was rescued and the cow taken to a patrol house.

 Detective Lynch, of Philadelphia; several detectives from Middlesex county and Policeman Charles Fitzsimmons spent several hours in Camden yesterday seeking the brutal slayers of John Whiteman and his son George, who were murdered near Middlesex county last Monday.

 Policeman Samuel Booth yesterday saved several children from being bitten by a supposed mad dog on South Fourth street.

 Loaded with twenty-two boxes of clothing, medicines, etc., a car was sent from Camden to San Francisco by the Women's Relief Committee yesterday.

 Edward S. Angeroth yesterday instituted proceedings in the Supreme Court to recover $5000 damages from the Campbell Preserve Company for the death of the plaintiff's son, who was crushed in an elevator.