

CAMDEN AT A GLANCE

Albion W. Lane, who desired to run as an independent candidate for Council in the Third ward, was yesterday informed by County Clerk Patterson that his name could not appear on the ticket because he had failed to file the names of his campaign committee as required by law. The time expired Saturday.

D. Parker Mumma, Jr., giving his address as 5731 Delancey street, Philadelphia, was fined $20 by the Recorder yesterday for speeding his auto forty-one miles an hour through Forest Hill Park. Paul Smith, of 3530 Delancey street, was fined $10 for a similar offense. Both men were arrested by Motorcycle Policeman Frost.

Following an illness of several weeks, Mrs. Anna R. Sheppard, aged 64 years, widow of Benjamin Sheppard, is dead at her home, at 239 Mt. Vernon street.
