

OVER IN CAMDEN

SNEAK THIEVES ENTERED THE residence of Josh Haines, at 730 Walnut street, through a rear door and stole three pocketbooks, each containing money.

THE CENTRAL STORAGE AND Transfer Company, with $40,000 capital stock, of which $1000 is paid in, filed articles of incorporation in the County Clerk's office.

POLICE LIEUTENANT PETTIT SET a trap to catch the mysterious "Jack, the Hugger," on Friday evening, but the hugger did not appear in his usual haunts.

MRS. FLORENCE A. BURLEIGH, OF Germantown, made an address on "The True Functions of Government" before the Camden Single Tax Club last evening.

THE STOCKHOLDERS OF THE MAN-ufacturers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company have voted in favor of dissolution of the corporation.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL SAMUEL H. Grey has been elected president of the Lawyers and Students' Association, just organized. Monthly meetings will be held for the discussion of topics of interest to the profession.

SUPREME COURT JUSTICE LUDLOW was in Camden yesterday, and, with Sheriff Tomlin, of Cape May county, drew a struck jury in the case of the Ocean City Railroad Company vs. the West Jersey and Seashore Railroad Company, an action on an appeal from the award of commissioners in land condemnation proceedings at Ocean City.

MRS. FLORENCE McCUSKER IS still at the home of her mother, at No. 35 State street, recuperating from the strain of her trial for the killing of her husband. She intends in the near future to open a millinery establishment in Philadelphia.