

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

With a fractured left arm and right leg, Alexander Shobe, 30 years old, of Salem, was taken to the Cooper Hospital yesterday. He was caught beneath falling packing cases in an industrial plant at Salem.

Building Inspector Day yesterday issued a permit to Barklow & Fulton for the erection of three brick dwellings at 2138-40 and 42 south Tenth street.

Running away from home to seek his fortune, 14-year old Robert Canther, of 193 East One hundred and forty second street, was picked up by Policeman Garrison yesterday. He was held pending word from New York.

At the funeral of Mrs. Charlotte Guthrie from her home at 422 Walnut street yesterday, the pall bearers were all policemen, including Captain Edward Hyde, John Brothers, Thomas Brothers, and Thomas Guthrie, a nephew of the deceased.

William C. Story, president of the Alpha Club, a member of the Board of Playground Commissioners and widely known about the city, and Miss Mabel Lentz, daughter of Mrs. Sophia Lentz, of National Park, were married Wednesday night. The ceremony took place at the groom's home, 919 Broadway and was performed by Rev. George A. Powell, of Bridgeton.