

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

* * The German American Alliance has sent a communication to City Council urging that Assistant Water Chief Harry Hertline be made successor of the late Chief Robert Hollingworth.

* * Yesterday was the birthday of two-year-old Helen Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Taylor, of 710 Pearl street, and friends sent a shower of post cards. When the postman called he found crepe on the door. Helen had died a short time before of measles.

* * Detective Brothers yesterday located in a Philadelphia pawnshop a quantity of silverware and other articles stolen from the home of Mrs. Emma Thompson, of 210 Taylor avenue.

* * The joint special committee of City Council and the Board of Health last night rejected the bid of the John A. Carter Company for erecting the municipal hospital for $32,900 and awarded the contract to George Bachman. The latter's bid was $34,400.