

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

 When a trolley car collided with a wagon laden with beer on Kaighn avenue yesterday not only was the liquid spilled, but the driver, Pasquale Jannuski, was badly bruised. The horses were taken to a veterinary hospital.

 Company D, Third Regiment, N. G. N. J., has selected John Doyle as its captain. He is a veteran of the Spanish and Philippine Wars and has been in the National Guard twenty years. J. Walter Scott was named first lieutenant.

 The John E. Hand Company was incorporated yesterday with a capital of $50,000, the object being to manufacture scientific and nautical instruments. The incorporators are John E. Hand, John C. Hand and F. A. Godfrey.

 Dr. O. W. Saunders is suffering from a case of blood poisoning resulting from an infection received while performing an operation. He has had three operations and another may be necessary.

 The engagement of Miss Dora Yoder, of Shamokin, Pa., and William Garrity, of 1604 Broadway, has been announced. The wedding will take place on June 28.

 After tramping through the wilds of Cape May county Detective Cherry of Camden, succeeded in locating and arresting Edward Markell, wanted for purloining $350 worth of machinery from the Mathis Shipbuilding Company. The man was landed in the Camden county jail to await trial.

 Camden bids fair to have a race of youthful swimmers through the excellent work inaugurated by Professor P. C. Messersmith, of the Y. M. C. A., working in co-operation with the Camden Board of Education. For the past week there have been squads of boys from the various schools taken to the institution's natatorium by Truant Officers Myers and Raynor. Twenty minutes of instruction in swimming has followed with the result that on an average nine out of the fifteen have picked up the art of keeping afloat. Several hundred boys have already availed themselves of this opportunity. The work will be continued until vacation.

ATLANTIC CITY NEWSLETS

Special to The Inquirer.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 14—Congressman J. Hampton Moore, Philadelphia, and Congressman John J. Gardner, of this district, have accepted invitations to attend the "Dollar Dinner" banquet which has been organized by the Business Men's League as a demonstration in favor of Federal aid to deepen the water on the Atlantic City inlet bar. The gathering will be held in the Inlet Hotel, within sight of the bar.

Four hundred members of the New Jersey bar have signified their intention of attending the annual convention and banquet of the New Jersey Bar Association in this city at the Chelsea Hotel, Friday and Saturday of this week. Governor Wilson will be the chief speaker. "Progressive Legislation" is to be discussed.

District Court Judge Frank Smathers Democrat, found the job of filling the office of sergeant-at-arms held by Walter Harcastle, Republican, a difficult matter his first appointee declining to qualify. Today, however David Brown, cigar merchant, accepted the appointment. The fees aggregate $1500 a year.

The Brotherhood of the Carpenters and Joiners are to hold their State convention here Friday and Saturday. The Executive Committee, in session here at the Rudolf today, reported that the mechanics had been fully employed in all sections of the State, as it was an active building year.