

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

 City Clerk Kramer yesterday issued a permit to the Standard Oil Company for the erection of a brick building 20x28 feet, to be located on River road

 The Gottlieb Baumschmidt-Strauss Brewing Company was incorporated yesterday with a capital of $5,000,000.

 William B. Hatch Post, 37, G. A. R., opened its annual camp at Wood Lynne Park yesterday with a flag raising and the firing of salutes.

 Morris Murphy was given ten days by the Recorder yesterday for creating a disturbance on a trolley car.

 Walter Hickman, the young man in the Camden jail charged with stealing an $800 launch from Robert Parvin, was thought to be drowned. After Hickman disappeared the launch was found partially submerged and it was concluded Hickman had met death by drowning. The harbor police had been hunting his body. He will be given a hearing to-day.

 Thirsty thieves yesterday morning effected an entrance into the saloon of John McGowan, at Tenth and Division streets, Camden. A keg of beer was taken, but was later found in the yard cooling off under a cake of ice.

 Charles F. Mallory was arrested by Policeman Pooley in Camden yesterday for scorching on Broadway. Chief of Police Foster has notified the police to pick up all wheelmen going at a rate of more than eight miles an hour, because of the many complaints recently received.

 County Detective Cherry yesterday received a letter from Constable Fred Voigt, who, with Lawyer Harry Scovel, is touring Europe. Constable Voigt said they arrived in Cherbourg safe and well and are enjoying the continental sights immensely. They will return about September 1.