

HE MET A FRIEND.

Man Came to Camden to Wed, But Police Found Him by Wayside

Samuel Ford, aged 46 years, of Bridgeton, went to Camden Monday with his sweetheart with the intention of getting married.

Ford left the bride-to-be at the home of a Camden relative while he went out to look for a minister. Instead of the domestic he came across an old friend.

Policeman Hart found him at 4 o'clock yesterday morning lying on the pavement at Third and Kaighn avenue unconscious and bleeding from several bad wounds received in slipping on the ice. He spent the balance of the night in City Hall.

Recorder Stackhouse was sympathetic, but refused to release the man.
