CAMDEN NEWS NOTES "Accused of seiling intoxicants to Horard reasons to Horard reasons to Horard reasons to Horard accuse, was fined $50 and costs by the Records accuse, was fined $50 and costs by the Records avenue, was fined $50 and costs by the Recorder yesterday.

*The police were yesterday asked to locate 17-year-oid Gertrude Garrett of 1171 Lawrence street, missing since Tuesday.

*For saving th life of a man several days ago, John Thompson, of 422 Vanhook street, has been presented with a medal by a number of friends in the Eighth ward.

 The annual ball of the First Italian Republican League was held last night at its headquarters, 813 South Fourth street, A numhor of leading political lights were present.

 Policeman T. Casper Hart, who was harled from the patrol wagon last Sakurdav night in a collision with a rolley car, died in the Cooper Hospital at 7 colock last night. He was 62 years old at 7 colock last night. We will be seen the color of the color of the  The State Senate at Trenton confirmed

 The State Senate at Trenton confirmed the nomination of Frank B. Jess, of Camden, as president of the State Board for the Equalization of Taxes.