

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

 Sheriff Hatch will announce the grand jury for the April term of court tomorrow morning.

 Since Dr. William Miller has given up the sub-postoffice in the Seventh ward, that ball-wick has been without such an institution, for no one seems to want it.

 Physicians report that there is something of an epidemic of "pink eye" in the lower section of the city.

 Mayor Ellis has announced the appointment of James Lewis, of the Fifth ward, as a sub-policeman, who fills the vacancy occasioned by the death of Policeman T. Casper Hart.

 The Trinity Club has been incorporated with these trustees: Joseph Wyzykowski, Joseph Fialski, Thomas Rart, Leon Czechanowicz and Fran Cienkowski.

 The Growth of Great Fortunes in the United States, was the subject of Rev. W. D. Thatcher at the Trinity Baptist Church last night. Members of City Council will attend this church next Sunday night.

 The first convention of the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarenes will be held in the P. R. R. Y. M. C. A. building from Wednesday until Sunday. Among the speakers will be Dr. P. F. Breese, of Los Angeles, and Rev. C. W. Rath, of Indiana.

 With his face severely burned, Louis Raglesby, 11 months old, of 521 Liberty street, was taken to the Cooper Hospital yesterday. The injuries were received by splashing hot fat.

 Maurice Fries, 25 years old, of Elverside, was taken to the Cooper Hospital yesterday with a dislocated shoulder, the result of a fall.

 Evangelistic services have been concluded at the Third Baptist Church, Rev. A. W. Anderson, the pastor, having seventeen conversions to his credit.

 The North Camden Men's Meeting was addressed in the State Street M. E. Church yesterday afternoon by Rev. Dr. James Kenney, of Philadelphia.