FOR EXECUTION All the Arrangements Completed for the Hanging of a Wife-Mur-

NERVING HIMSELF

derer in Camden

Sheriff John Wesley Sell of Camden, yesterday completed all arrangements for Yestoway to the hanging of Samuel Vanstavern next Tuesday. A new suit of black clothes has been provided for the condemned man. He was shaved by the prison barbon to be the post of the p

With the assistance of former Sheriff West the glibbet was tested yeaterday and everything worked satisfactorily. Vantastern heard the thud as the trap was sprung, and a shudder passed over the wreck of a once powerful physique. To a city official who visited the condemned man yesterday at the latter's tequest Vanstavern said he felt better than he had for some time. Prison officials quest vansavern sau he feit better tan he had for some time. Prison official state he is trying to nerve himself for the final orders. His spiritual advisers, keys, J. R. Alason and D. B. Green, keys, J. R. Alason and D. B. Green, but him but the final party of the first spiritual advisers, keys, J. R. Alason and D. B. Green, keys, J. R. Alason and D. B. Green, but he first spiritual distribution of the first spiritual for the first s