

CAMDEN COUNTY TO START ON APRIL 22

Newly Formed League Will Tear Open Baseball Sea- son With 8 Club Circuit

Special to The Inquirer:

GLOUCESTER CITY, March 29—At a meeting of the Camden County Baseball League held tonight the playing schedule for the season was adopted. There will be 28 games played by each team on Saturdays and holidays and the schedule was so satisfactory that not a change was asked for after it had been gone over. The season will open on Saturday, April 22 and close on September 23. The League has every assurance of being a success and there will be a close fight for the pennant.

President William Wells announced that he had selected as four of the five umpires: A. J. Wallace, F. A. Merrion, Morris J. Steelman and John Hathaway. The other will be named later and they will alternate, skipping a Saturday every five weeks.

The schedule as arranged below is for the games to be played on four enclosed grounds respectively. Third and Erie streets, North Camden; Fairview grounds, East Side, Camden; Haddonfield, and Emerson grounds, Fourth and Jasper streets, South Camden.
