

Must Resentence Murderer to Die

According to information received by Camden authorities, Charles Ford, the Camden restaurateur now in the death house at Trenton awaiting electrocution for the murder of May Effie Wagner, cannot be legally put to death until he is resented by Supreme Court Justice Garrison. Ford was originally sentenced to die during the week of November 22, but the then Acting Governor Prince gave him a reprieve until January 6. It was supposed that he would be electrocuted the past week, but the State Prison authorities have asked that a new date be fixed by Judge Garrison.
