DEATH BY SHOOTING IN PHILADELPHIA. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., August 4, 1873. Samuel M. Williamson, a resident of Wilmington. Del., was accidently shot in a pawnshop, at the corner of Third and South streets, this evening, He was examining a gun, and a colored man named Dempsey Butler was looking at a pistol, when the latter was accidentally discharged. The ball entered the left side of Williamson, passing downwards. He was removed to the hespital in a dangerous condition.