

Last Night's Delegate Elections and Other Late News Notes.

Last night the Republicans of Camden city and county held primary elections, at which were chosen delegates to the State Convention to be held at Trenton to-morrow for the selection of Presidential electors. The result of the primaries in the city was as follows:

First Ward—Frank F. Patterson, Sr., Simeon T. Ringo, E. Ambler Armstrong and Charles Corry.

Second Ward—Hon Albert Merritt, J. Willard Morgan, Charles A. Batts, John Campbell.

Third Ward—W. H. Thomas, John Evans.

Fourth Ward—Thomas B. Harned, William A. Husted, Alexander J. Millette, Jr., John P. Kenney.

Fifth Ward—C. J. Miles, Jr., Maurice A. Rogers, Dr J. D. Leckner.

Sixth Ward—Thomas Blackwood, Thomas Goodwin.

Seventh Ward—John Howe, Charles H. Peters, Charles Bunisholtz.

Eighth Ward—Jacob P. Nesson, Gabriel Johnson, John Ware.

An unknown man, apparently a tramp, was struck and killed by a train on the Amboy division near the State street crossing yesterday morning.

The Shiloh Baptist Church, between two factions of which there has been a wrangle for some time past, has healed its differences and will be publicly recognized by the West Jersey Baptist Association this evening.

The Prohibitionists of Camden have constructed a platform on wheels which they propose to move about from place to place as a speaker's stand to use in conducting outdoor political meetings.

Colonel James M. Scovel has received a letter from his brother-in-law, James W. Barrett, a sugar planter of Louisiana, saying that the sentiment in the State favors Blaine and Logan, and that "a fair count will give them the State."

By means of sociables which they are holding the members of the Eighth Street Methodist Church, of Camden, have raised a considerable sum of money for the payment of their church debt.

A meet is to be held at Woodland Driving Park to-day, at which there are several entries in each of the 3.50, 3 minute, 2.50 and 2.40 classes.

Justice Miles, of Wrightsville, has held John Thomas, a colored boy, fifteen years old, to $300 bail to answer a charge of mayhem.

At a special session of the Camden county criminal courts, held yesterday, Henry Diehl was convicted of assault and battery upon Joseph Sage, and was sentenced to twenty days in the county jail. John Sommers pleaded guilty to assault and battery upon William Morgan, and was dismissed with a reprimand, sentence being suspended. Appeal cases were brought up, but it was decided that all such cases must, under a previous decision, lie over until the October term of court, except in the case of Albracie vs Buddock & Bradlock, for trespass, in which the case was not pushed, and a non-suit was granted.

Yesterday morning the Helaf, a tug built at Dialogue's River Iron Works, at Kaighn's Point, Camden, for the use of the Pennsylvania Railroad in the Delaware Canal, left for its destination. The boat is 65 feet long, 9 feet beam and 5 feet deep, and has compound engines.

The case of Deputy, the Philadelphia carpet dealer, against Alexander J. Millette, Jr., for the amount of an advertising order of contested validity, was tried in the Camden District Court for the second time yesterday resulting, as before, in a disagreement of the jury.

Yesterday afternoon the tug May T. White, of Philadelphia, was seen by the authorities of the Camden Water Works to take a scow-boat loaded with dredgings to a point near where the Camden water supply is drawn from, and dump it into the water, as it has been alleged has been done in the past, to the detriment of the water supply of Camden. Fred. W. Tarr, clerk of the department, who is also a justice of the peace, was informed, and immediately issued a warrant for the arrest of the tug's crew, but at the latest accounts they had not been apprehended.

At a meeting of the Camden Board of Education, held last evening, Treasurer Calhoun reported as follows: Last balance, $67.81; receipts of the past month, $13,527.11; expenditures, $13,411.94, balance on hand, $115.17. The Committee on Accounts reported having approved bills to the amount of $1,850.1. The report was approved. The treasurer stating that there was no money except in the officers, teachers and supplies accounts, the following transfers were ordered: From teachers to janitors, $61.75, teachers to officers, $183.03, insurance to officers, $64.35, miscellaneous to officers, $22.89, supplies to printing, $30.50. A note of $500 for two months was also ordered negotiated to meet current expenses.

Mayor Bradshaw last evening gave a hearing to John Loy for refusing to pay his fare on the Philadelphia and Atlantic City Railroad. He was found guilty and committed to the county jail in default of a fine and costs.

Alderman William H. Davis last evening imposed a penalty of a fine and cost, amounting to $13.75, upon William McGinley for using abusive language toward William H. Tyler.

It was currently reported last evening that the Camden and Atlantic Railroad Company had effected a compromise with Henry Deith, injured at the Pike's Peak collision, by paying the sum of $500 in cash, the physician's bill, and to procure him a light, lucrative position on the road for life.

An elopement was prevented at Elwood on Saturday by the father of the intended bride, Lizzie Adams, intercepting her as she was about to join her expectant lover by taking a freight train on the Camden and Atlantic Railroad, the father stepping out of the cars and taking his daughter home.

The Haddonfield Station, on the Camden and Atlantic Railroad, was broken open early yesterday morning, the safe forced and about $60 in money taken. The work was apparently done by professional burglars, who made their escape.