

OVER IN CAMDEN.

* Bread thieves have been operating among the grocery stores in North Camden.

* The Seventh Ward Republican Association, composed of colored voters, was organized on Monday night with seventy-five members.

* There will be no session of the Criminal Court to-day, as the court officials desire to attend the unveiling of the McClellan monument in Philadelphia.

* Second ward citizens will organize to demand better police protection, cleaner streets, more regularity in the collection of ashes and garbage and better service in street lighting.

* Republican clubs of the Eighth ward will hold a ratification meeting on the evening of October 31, and the Union Republican League, of the Fifth ward, will hold one on November 1.

* The $15,000 gymnasium annex to the Young Men's Christian Association Hall will be opened to the members on Monday evening next, although it will not be entirely completed until December 1.

* The funeral of Fireman William Bogia was largely attended yesterday by delegations from the Fire Department, the "38" Club and the Fifth Ward Republican Club. There were many handsome floral offerings. Interment was made in Evergreen Cemetery.

* Thomas Hamrose, Gus Smith, Edgar Boulton, Gilbert Boulton, Harry Leach, T. B. Chambers and C. Patton, members of the "Spider-Gang," were held in $200 bail each, yesterday, under indictments by the grand jury for assaulting Policemen Bakeley and Anderson.
