

Camden, N. J., Dec. 25 — Albert Lilke, a white man, aged 20 years, was murdered today while returning to his home on South Ninth street.
Lilke saw two negroes fighting and attempted to separate them. The larger of the negroes threw Lilke to the pavement and drawing a razor almost severed his head. Lilke ran instantly. Clement Ridgway, who lives in a negro section in South Camden, was arrested on suspicion of knowing something about the mur.
