

TWO PERSONS INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

Automobiles were responsible for two being taken to hospitals in Camden yesterday. Fireman Joseph Ware, aged 36 years, of 1709 Filmore street, after responding to an alarm of fire at Locust and Pine streets, prepared to leave with the auto apparatus. He was busy cranking the machine when the handle slipped out of his grasp. The next moment he was knocked unconscious when he was struck in the face. At Cooper Hospital it was found he had a fractured nose and lacerations.

While on his way home astride a motorcycle last night, Bert Camblos, aged 35 years, of West Philadelphia, was run down by an automobile at Second and Federal streets. He was injured about the legs and body. The man was taken to the Homeopathic Hospital.
