

OVER IN CAMDEN.

* James Callahan, of Fourth and Berkley streets was hit in the eye with a snow ball and will probably lose his sight.

* Charles Selah was committed to jail last evening by Justice Kistine, charged with assault and battery on his wife.

* An unknown man, representing himself as the advertising agent of the Temple Theatre program has swindled a number of advertisers by the collection of bills.

* Fireman Samuel Ledge, of Engine Company No. 3, while feeding a pet cat in the hay loft of the stable, fell through the hatchway and was seriously injured.

* Councilman August Weber, of the Third ward, who was defeated for re-election on Tuesday by the Republican candidate by a large majority, has issued a card stating that on all occasions hereafter he will support the Republican party "and no other."

* Justice Kauffman yesterday lodged detainers against James Kilroy on charges of breaking and entering and assault and battery. The Mayor had just suspended sentence upon Kilroy for being disorderly at the polls of the First precinct, Seventh ward, on Tuesday. Some weeks ago Kilroy was convicted of violating the election law last fall.
