

OVER IN CAMDEN

Under the command of Major John I. Shinn, of Burlington, the Camden companies of the Sixth Regiment, N. J. N. G., and Gatling Gun Company B, had a battalion drill at the armory last night.

Henry Black was granted letters of administration yesterday on the estate of John Gallagher, of Gloucester City.

Recorder Nowery suspended sentence on Thomas Carr, a young man charged with drunkenness and abusing his mother, owing to the mother's pleading and upon Carr's signing the pledge for one year.

The Seventh Ward Republican Club has elected these delegates to attend the convention of the State League of Republican Clubs, at Trenton: Joseph A. Starr, George C. Blow, John H. Carmany, Chas. A. Cornoy and W. Taylor Wright.

St. Patrick's day will be celebrated at the Camden Republican Club this evening with a "Hibernian luncheon."

The Lyceum Dramatic Association will produce the drama, "Shaun Rhue," at the Catholic Lyceum this afternoon and evening.

Charged with larceny as bailor, Wilbur E. Brice was held in $300 bail by Justice Schmitz, last night, on complaint of Geo. Love.

Grand Master Ernest C. Stahl, of the Grand Lodge of New Jersey, A. O. U. W., paid an official visitation to Camden Lodge, No. 1, last night.