

Some Sections Of City Show Population Gains

The western section of Trenton showed a rise from 5,181 to 5,201. The city's population as a whole declined nearly 14,000 to 114,000, a drop of about 11 percent. The bulk of this loss was in the 1960 census as a city plan and in a section on either side of the Freeway.

Planning Director Harvey Mandel, whose staff is checking in South Trenton, Chambersburg, the 1960 census as a city plan and in a section on either side of the Freeway. Mandel said the staff has not yet drawn any conclusions from the data received from the census tracts in Trenton only. Mandel said the staff has not yet drawn any conclusions from the data received from the census tracts in Trenton only. Mandel said the staff has not yet drawn any conclusions from the data received from the census tracts in Trenton only.

The western section tracts figures, will be received from the bureau later, he added. The planning staff has begun the preparation of a large map, in connection with its community renewal study, on which will be charted data on housing code enforcement, crime, public health problems, welfare recipients and other information.

New Type Gauze Stops Bleeding

CHICAGO (UPI) — A new gauze has been developed that stops bleeding within minutes even in hemophiliacs whose blood does not clot normally, the Midwest Hemophilia Foundation said yesterday.

The gauze forms its own artificial blood clot with a gelatin-like film. The film develops minutes after the gauze comes in contact with the blood, the foundation said.

MARRIED 50 YEARS—Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Apple of 2210 South Olden Avenue celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on February 28. They were married in Passaic, N. J., where Mr. Apple operated a laundry for many years. They have been residents of Trenton for the last 20 years during which Mr. Apple was employed by the Kramer-Trenton Company until his retirement. Both are members of the Golden Age Club. A reception for the couple will be held at the White Gate restaurant this afternoon by their four children. They are: Abe Apple, president of the Hamilton Township Civic Association; Mrs. Lillian Wolf, Mrs. Marie Gray of Wilmington, and Harry Apple of Paterson. They have six grandchildren. The Apples are members of Ahavath Israel Congregation.

5 Get Probation In Gaming Raid Case In Camden

CAMDEN — AP — Judge Thomas M. Madden of U. S. District Court has placed five men, one of them the brother of a city commissioner, on probation for failing to buy federal gambling stamps.

The judge also fined the defendants $1,000 each Friday, but then suspended the fines. The probations ranged from three to five years.

State Police, led by Mayor Alfred R. Pierce, arrested the five in city-wide raids in November, 1959. As a result of the raids, Pierce later was ousted from his job as head of the police department.

The men, who all pleaded guilty, are Leo P. Italiano, 43, of Collingswood, brother of City Commissioner Frank Italiano; Anthony J. Passarella, 47, of Camden; Albert Buck, 61, of Camden; William Lacava, 58, of Atlantic City, and Dominick L. Padulla, 44, of Camden.

Ex-Restaurant Owner Files As Bankrupt
The former owner of Jacques Dinet, Parkway and Olden Avenues, has filed a voluntary bankruptcy petition in Federal Court here.

Jack J. Morkin of 72 Abernethy Drive noted debts of $11,868 and assets of $525 in his petition. A creditor group took over the restaurant last year.

Youths Try To See Pal In Jail, Judge Arranges 30-Day Reunion

VALLAHALLA, N. Y. — AP — Two youths who wanted to visit a jailed friend got their wish in court yesterday — a 30-day reunion.

Police said that after an evening of merriment, they drove to the county penitentiary here early yesterday and tried to see their pal.

When they refused to be shooed away by guards and insisted on calling up to the prison windows, they were arrested on a loitering charge.

A Mount Pleasant justice of the peace sentenced Donald Winch, 18, of White Plains, and Martin Lanning, 22, of Mount Pleasant, to 30 days in the Vallahalla penitentiary. The name of the friend was not disclosed.

Sign Oil Pact

KARACHI, Pakistan (UPI) — Pakistan and the Soviet Union yesterday signed an agreement for oil exploration in Pakistan by Soviet experts and equipment. The $30 million agreement provides for repayment over 12 years, partly in Pakistani goods.
