

CAMDEN AT A GLANCE

Judge Borie yesterday refused to consider the application of counsel for William E. Fowler, of Blackwood, for his release on habeas corpus proceedings from the county jail, where the defendant was committed for failing to furnish a bond to support his wife.

With many North Camden business men interested in it the Republic Building and Loan Association was incorporated yesterday. Among the subscribers are: Frank C. Probert, Vinal A. Johnson, George T. E. Shockley, William L. Fox, Louis B. Humphreys Jr., Dr. William R. Cornell, Dr. Horace L. Rose, Charles W. Hickey, John A. Rogers, Isaac J. Rhodes, Samuel B. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob R. Elwell, of 407 Cooper street, announce the engagement of their daughter Alice to Byron M. Seabrook, a young Camden attorney.

Congress Keller, of Michigan, a member of the Naval Affairs Committee, and Dr. Lewis Abbott, of the University of Pennsylvania, have been secured as speakers for the meeting to discuss preparedness and which will be held the fore part of next month.
