

Policeman Kills Mate

CAMDEN —AP— Edward C. Garrity, director of public safety, says no disciplinary action is planned against a Camden policeman who accidentally shot and killed another officer during a hunt for a jail escapee who is still at large. A 13-state alarm is out for the escapee.

Officials said patrolman Dennis Evans, 28, shot and killed Sgt. Carmen Fuscellaro, 33, who was dressed in dungarees similar to those worn by escapee Donald Murphy, 29, in the semi-dark corridor of a fourth floor in the Camden City Hall-Court house.

Detectives said Murphy, a trusty, escaped Saturday from the jail on the sixth floor after he stole keys from a desk drawer, unlocked a cabinet and took a pistol and forced a guard to open the main jail door.

Evans and Fuscellaro were members of a search party combing the 18-floor structure during the manhunt. Investigators said that Dennis, seeing Fuscellaro come through a door, fired a shot from a riot gun in belief that the police sergeant was Murphy.
