

Stockton

Special to The Inquirer.

STOCKTON, Sept. 5.—Councilman Weiss and Town Treasurer Greenwold are spending several days at Atlantic City.

Justice Ristine, Constable Renner, George W. Spicks, Charles Kleemann and William Godfrey have been spending the past few days at South Atlantic.

Mr. Job Hurst, of Federal street, is on a business trip West.

Mrs. H. G. Dennell has returned from Atlantic City.

Mrs. Samuel N. Johnson, wife of the Chief of Police, and her sister, returned Wednesday from a several days' visit to Atlantic City.

A watermelon party was given by the members of the Grace Presbyterian Church on the lawn at North Cramer Hill Monday night, which was largely attended. The lawn of the church was prettily decorated with Japanese lanterns.

The Citizens' Fire Company will go to Atlantic City on the 15th inst., to attend the dedication of the house of the Goodwill Fire Company, of that place.

The Wesley M. E. temperance meeting has been largely attended every night during the week with Evangelist Dolbow, Sarah and Clara Boyd, Rev. G. W. Ridout and others in charge. Good work has been accomplished.

Policeman Abbott and John Drummond have been on a week's gunning trip to Salem.

Officer Gill and family have been spending the past few days at Atlantic City.