

ELKS PLAN SURVEY IN EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN

Elks of New Jersey will conduct a survey in connection with its plan to further educate the crippled children of the State. In this connection questionnaires will be sent out. This agreement was reached at a conference between Joseph G. Buch, of this city, president of the State Elks' Association; Prof. Arthur D. Dean, of Columbia University; Dr. Harris K. Cohan, head of the United States Veterans' Bureau of Vocational Training; John E. Gill, in charge of the work for disabled veterans in this city; William J. Bickett, superintendent of Trenton public schools; Dr. Leroy A. Wilkes, head of the medical department of the public schools; Commissioner A. Harry Moore, of Jersey City; Judge John J. Griffin, of Elizabeth; Judge H. E. Pickersgill, of Perth Amboy; Mayor Thomas S. Mooney, of Burlington, and City Clerk Morris Odell, of Camden. The last-named five are members of the Elks' committee to take charge of the work. Judge Pickersgill has been appointed chairman.
