

FEW WORDS TELL OF JERSEY NEWS

MAYOR GOT GAS.—TUCKERTON.—After several years of untiring energy, Mayor F. R. Austin has the satisfaction of seeing a gas company farmed at this place. Mayor Austin was elected by the voters of the borough with the understanding that the town was to have its streets lighted.

WILMINGTON MAN KILLED.—TRENTON.—George Abbott, of Wilmington, Del., was thrown from a trolley repair wagon while at work in this city and received injuries from which he died soon afterward.

MAN AND WIFE HOSPITAL INMATES.—ATLANTIC CITY.—The Atlantic City Hospital has among the list of patients both a man and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Hammer, visitors from Pittsburgh. Mr. Hammer was taken to the hospital from his hotel about two weeks ago and his wife followed on Saturday, after being ill at the hotel for several days.

WITNESS UNDER SURGEON'S KNIFE.—MT. HOLLY.—A surgical operation will prevent George Phares, of Trenton, from appearing as a witness in the Phares murder trial here next Monday. Phares is the father of Constable Albert A. Phares, who, it is alleged, died from poison administered by his wife.

WRIGHT—MOORE.—A pretty home wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon when Miss Jane Thomas Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Moore, became the bride of Alfred Wright, of Norristown, Pa.

TAKEN OFF BY PARALYSIS.—MT. HOLLY.—Mrs. Albert H. Lear died suddenly from paralysis. She was 57 years old.

SLAUGHTERED TUBERCULOSIS COWS.—MT. HOLLY.—The State authorities have killed seven valuable cows belonging to Josiah Stewart, of Rancocas. They were affected with tuberculosis.

WESTVILLE ODD FELLOWS READY.—WESTVILLE.—A sufficient number of members having been secured, the charter for the new Odd Fellows' lodge was applied for yesterday.

RETIRED CLERGYMAN'S WIFE STRICKEN.—PITMAN.—Mrs. Kate McDowell, age 60 years, wife of Rev. George McDowell, a retired Methodist minister, had a paralytic stroke.

PHYSICIANS MEET.—ASBURY PARK.—What will be one of the most interesting conventions ever held by the Medical Society of New Jersey began yesterday at the Coleman House, when the one hundred and thirty-seventh annual meeting was opened by President E. L. B. Godfrey, of Camden. The annual address of President Godfrey last evening was an able discourse upon "Past and Present Educational Standards of the New Jersey Medical Profession."

News of Camden

Miss Ellen Alberto Langendorf and Dr. A. Haines Lippincott, one of the Coroners of Camden county, were married last evening at the home of the bride's mother, at 512 Linden street, Camden. Rev. J. S. Helsler officiated. Miss Elizabeth Langendorf, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Misses Mary Vansclver, of Chestnut Hill, and Lorette Vreeland were bridesmaids. Joseph Lippincott, brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Dr. F. N. Robinson and Charles H. Laird. William F. Weber, aged 22 years, of Allentown, Pa., met with probably fatal injuries at Broadway and Bulson streets, Camden, yesterday, by falling beneath an engine. An arm and a leg were crushed so badly they had to be amputated. The funeral of Daniel Johntra, the Camden jailer, who was familiarly called "Uncle Dan," took place yesterday from his late home, 736 Federal street. Interment was made in Evergreen Cemetery. The Fourth Ward Democratic Club has endorsed William R. Hearst for President of the United States. The annual commencement of St. Mary's Parochial School was held in the Catholic Lyceum, Camden, last night. The program included salutatory by Edward A. Mullane; essay, "Unsung Heroes," Miss Anna Dugan; class prophecy, Charles Bechtel; essay, "Charms and Counter-charms," Miss Alice Sullivan. The diplomas were presented by Rev. Dean B. J. Mulligan.