Year at Haddonfield Special to The Inquirer. HADDONFIELD, N. J., May 13.-The new fiscal year of the borough commissioners started tonight at the regular weekly meeting of the board, at which Mayor Joseph Lippincott presided. These were named borough officers for the coming year: Department of Public Affairs: Mayor Lippincott, director; borough clerk, Allen Clymer; borough solicitor, Henry S. Scovel; overseer of the poor, Charles L. Macready; recorder, Deane Presser. Department of Public Salety: Marge Lippincott, director; chief of police, Joseph W. Vanlier; chief of the Fire Desepn W. vanier; chief of the Fire De-partment, Bayard C. Stavely; plumbing inspectac, Aliced England; building in-entian and health inspector. Walter ??

BOROUGH OFFICIALS NAMED Appointments Made for New Fiscal

Department of Revenue and Finance:

Smith.

Middleton-

Montreville Shinn, director; collector and tteasurer, Charles E. Magill; aassessor, William H. Harrison; collector of acrears, William H. Ludlow; clerk of Water Department, Howard W. Clement: clerk of Sewer Department, Allen Cly-Bengetment of Streete and Fublic Fron-erty: H. Holloway, director; borough engineer, J. C. Remington, Jr.; engineer of water works, George H. Thompson.

Commissioners of the Sinking Fund: Deane Pressey, S. S. Eldridge, Therefore Blaker, Library trustee, Miss Emma