

Didn't Like a Policeman's Lot

After one day's experience on the police force James Connors, a Democratic appointee, presented his resignation to the Camden Police Commissioners yesterday. James Murphy was given the place. Policeman Benjamin Thomas resigned, Alfred Hayden was dismissed and Thomas Walton and Godfrey Eisenhardt were suspended. They are Republicans. John Foley, a Democrat, was given Hayden's position.
