MORPHIA KILLED Two camden boys

Chemist Beringer Makes His Report to Prosecutor Lloyd—Another Witness in Murder Case

George M. Beringer, the chemist who made an analysis of the organs of John Houseman Coffin and Walter Price Jennings, who were found dead near Haddon Heights, two weeks ago, has made a report of his findings to Irro-secutor Jloyd.

It was -tated yesterday by an official in a position to know that Mr. Beringer found traces of enough morphia in each of the boys stomach to kill a man. What is not believed it was gown them in a liquid and there were no traces of food and the stomach of the work of the wore another witness who saw the three boys together in the fold a short distance from where the hooles were found. They reNo day has as yet been fixed for the trial of the alleged murderer, Young Paul Woodward, but it is believed if Prosecutor to the provide the provided of the provided in the provided provided provided the provided provi