WIFE BADLY BEATEN, HUSBAND ARRESTED

Woman Declares Her Spouse
Charged Her With Being
Friendly to Another Man

Almost beaten to death, Mrs. Pasualina Marino, aged 30 years, of West Berlin, was taken to Cooper Hospital in Camden yesterday. Her husband, Giuseppe Marino, was arrested after he had tried to shoot himself. He was committed to the Camden county jail. He is charged with being responsible for his wife's hurts. Beside numerous bruises and lacerations all over the body the woman is internally injured.

According to the story she told Detective Captain Schregler and Detective Troncone in the presence of Assistant Prosecutor Butler, the attack was made by the husband because he thought she was too friendly with another man. He is alleged to have kicked and beaten her into insensibility. Neighbors went to her rescue.

The husband fled and it was when officers went after him that he is said to have tried to shoot himself.

Mrs. Marino was placed in an automobile and taken to Camden in eighteen minutes, West Berlin being sixteen miles away.
