

Alleged Slayer Taken in Camden

Furnished with the description of Gilberto Fouriso, an alleged murderer, Policeman Troncone yesterday located the man in Camden's Italian colony and placed him under arrest. The man was identified by Inspector Ahearn, of Providence, R. I., where the prisoner is charged with stabbing to death F. Sallucio. Inspector Ahearn stated that Fouriso had attacked his victim during an Italian picnic at Providence, stabbing him five times.
